Southern Nevada Jewish Community Digital Heritage Project

HOLOCAUST ADVISORY GROUP

Charge: The Holocaust Advisory Group is comprised of individuals who work closely with Holocaust survivors or with Holocaust education. The Group helps to identify materials to include in the web portal about Southern Nevada’s Holocaust survivors, and helps review and write contextual information about the Holocaust for the portal. They help ensure the Libraries remain sensitive to issues of concern.

Benefits: The Holocaust Advisory Group will have a significant role in gathering content for the web project to feature. They will have a significant role in shaping the portal’s coverage of Southern Nevada’s Holocaust survivors. The Group will be publicly recognized and thanked for their hard work, and will be invited to all events associated with the project.

Composition: The Holocaust Advisory Group is comprised of no more than eight individuals who work closely with Holocaust survivors or with Holocaust education, including representatives from the Nevada Governor’s Advisory Council on Education Relating to the Holocaust, the Sperling Kronberg Mack Holocaust Resource Center, Generations of the Shoah – Nevada, and the Holocaust Survivors Group of Southern Nevada.

The Chair sets meeting agendas and call meetings to order. UNLV Libraries staff act in an ex-officio capacity. Terms are for one year and are renewable. The Dean of the University Libraries will appoint and renew the Chair and all members. Decisions about renewals will be made in consultation with the Chair of the Holocaust Advisory Group. Nominations to the group will be accepted.
