Historical Background

Women of Diversity Productions, Inc. (WOD) is a non-profit organization based in Las Vegas, Nevada whose mission is to empower and give visibility to the achievements of women in Las Vegas and throughout Nevada through publishing books, producing public events, and documentaries about women and womens organizations. WOD was founded as a non-profit organization in 1992 by Dr. Marlene Adrian who was a professor in the departments of Physical Education, Kinesiology, Rehabilitation Education, and Bioengineering at universities across the US including Springfield College, Washington State University, and the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. Adrian's research focused on primarily in the areas of biomechanics, sports, aging, the disabled, and women.

After retiring from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign in 1992, Dr. Adrian established Women of Diversity Productions, Inc. initially to produce the Women in Sport and Physical Activity Journal, an international research publication. Over the years, WOD expanded its scope to include the creation of documentary videos highlighting women in Nevada's history such as Judy Bayley, Florence McClure, and Sarah Winnemucca. WOD's programming includes creating exhibitions, books, public programming, and video documentaries for commemorative events such as the Las Vegas Centennial in 2005 and Nevada's Sesquicentennial celebration in 2015. WOD also conducted research and produced reports on the Gaming Gender Equality Index in 2017 and 2018 which revealed the policies, practices, and commitment of twenty one casino and gaming corporations to gender equality.

Adrian passed in 2022 and is survived by her spouse, Denise R. Duarte. As of 2023, Duarte serves as President on WOD's Board of Directors.
