Historical Background

The Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (CSUN) is the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) undergraduate student government. The purpose of CSUN is to "represent the voice of students, build a campus community, and to create a memorable college experience." CSUN is comprised of three branches: Executive, Legislative, and Judicial. The Executive Branch oversees all CSUN activities and is comprised of the Student Body President, Vice President, Senate President, Senate President Pro Tempore, and one appointed non-voting member. The Legislative Branch functions as CSUN's Senate. The Senate is comprised of twenty-five senators from all nine UNLV colleges. The Senate votes on various bills and funding proposals throughout the year. The Judicial Branch consists of nine justices who hear cases relating to CSUN activity and interprets CSUN's constitution and bylaws.

Scope and Contents Note

The Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas Records are primarily comprised of both physical and digital meeting minutes, agendas, publications, funding and planning documents, and memoranda created by the Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (CSUN) from 1965 to 2019. CSUN is the undergraduate student government of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV). The records mainly provide information on how the three different branches (Executive, Legislative, and Judicial) of CSUN operate. The collection documents activities of defunct committees like the Organizations board and Services board. The records also document how CSUN interacts with, serves, and represents the students of UNLV through events, scholarships, elections, lobbying, and hearings. The records provide significant documentation of CSUN activities at UNLV and show how the student government of UNLV has grown since 1965.
